

Musicale Will Open Founders Program

Orchestra, Chorus To Perform Twice

The University Orchestra and Chorus will open the Founders Week activities with two performances of a four-part program in Memorial Hall Sunday at 3 and 8 p.m.

The presentation is under the direction of Dr. Edwin E. Stein, head of the Music Department, with Mildred Lewis and Almo Kiviniemi acting as associate directors. Concertmaster will be Dr. Kenneth Wright.

The first three parts of the program will be by the orchestra alone. They are, "Prelude to Act 3 of Lohengrin," by Wagner; "Symphony No. 5 in B-flat Major," a lesser known work by Schubert; and a new composition by a former Kentuckian, Dr. Weldon Hart.

The Hart composition, called the "John Jacob Niles Suite" in honor of the Kentucky folk song specialist, includes love songs, carols, and ballads based on folk music collected or written by Niles. Composed in 1948, the "Niles Suite" won wide acclaim after its performance last summer by the New York Philharmonic. Dr. Hart, former head of the music department at Western Kentucky State College, will be the guest of the University for the Sunday concert.

For the concluding number of the program the Mixed Chorus of 140 voices will join with the University's 60-piece orchestra in presenting Brahms' "Song of Destiny."

Special guests at both the afternoon and evening concerts will be members of Phi Beta and Phi Mu Alpha fraternities.

No tickets remain for either performance but the afternoon program will be broadcast by WKLV at 3 p.m.

Applications For NACA Work Taken

Applications for engineer, chemist, physicist, and metallurgist positions paying $3100 a year are being accepted by the National Advisory Committee for Aeronautics for laboratories in Virginia, California, and Ohio. NACA work is primarily in research so applicants should be interested in this kind of work.

Applicants must have completed or will complete the required courses in the field for which they apply by June 30, 1950. A written test is also required.

Detailed information and application forms may be obtained from most first- and second-class post offices, from Civil Service regional offices, or by writing to the U. S. Civil Service Commission, Washington, 25, D. C., or to the Executive Secretary, Board of U. S. Civil Service Examiners, NACA, Langley Field, Virginia.

Applications should be sent to the Executive Secretary at Langley Field, and must be received not later than Feb. 28.

Wised Up Senior Divulges How To Beat Registration

By Billy Noy

After three and one half years of wear and tear and great mental anguish when it comes time for registering and classifying, I have finally discovered a few tricks that I would like to pass on to the incoming groups, so they won't suffer as I have.

Undoubtedly first, and most important is to learn the general order of classifying and registering. If this is not understood completely, then defeat is all you may hope for. This knowledge consists of the three W's, or when to do what and where. The failing to understand registering and classifying has been the direct cause of so many of our top flight students spending weeks and even months in the infirmary.

Get Slip Early

Secondly, and really quite important, is getting a registration slip so you can get a jump on the rest. The beauty of this move can only be truly appreciated by someone who has obtained a registration slip early. While others are writing, tearing their hair, cursing the day that ever made them decide to go to college, you will quietly and peacefully hand in your cards, already made out. (We recommend that you do not try to talk to a student who is going through the painful process of registering while you have your hands already made out. Then move quietly into Alumni Gym to sign up for classes.)

This brings up another point. Get your classes ahead of time. As to the best way this may be accomplished there are many schools of thought, one of which is to see the instructor in whose class you wish to enroll before the end of the last semester. This shows the instructor how eager you are to get into his class. Also a

Foreign Study Organization Lists Program

Travel and Study, an organization for study abroad, has announced a summer series of study programs for undergraduate and post-graduate students in the fields of humanities, economics, political science, and the vocational arts.

The programs, to be directed by American educators, will be offered at several European schools including the Universities of Oxford, Cambridge, and London in England; the Sorbonne and the Universities of Montpellier and Grenoble in France; and the Universities of Uppsala, Stockholm, Copenhagen, and Oslo in the Scandinavian countries.

Air tours to the study programs have been arranged by Travel and Study and certificates or special diplomas will be presented to students who successfully complete the courses. In addition, academic credits will be granted to students who fulfill the specified requirements of American colleges and universities.

Information may be obtained by writing Travel and Study, Inc., 110 E. 57th Street, New York 22, N. Y.

New Zoology Museum Opens

The opening of a new Zoology Museum which contains a variety of specimens has been announced by the zoology department.

Located in room 10 of the Funkhouser Biological Sciences building, the museum contains a set of skeletons of mammals illustrating numerous orders of animal life. Among those represented are the gorilla and the rare duckbill of Australia. Also on display is the skeleton of the noted racehorse and sire, Hanover.

First plans were made for the museum in 1933 when the designs for the Biological Sciences Building were made. A single room was set aside on the ground floor. After the building was completed, the room was left empty because funds were not available to furnish it. During the war it was used in the ASTP training program.

Two years ago the University authorized funds for the project and the first unit was set up. The new unit consists of cases along three walls. Each case has a filtering device, modern lighting, and circulating water in the aquarium tanks.

Some of the specimens, including a set of mounted birds, were obtained from the Smithsonian Institution of Washington in exchange for archaeological study materials from Kentucky.

Graduate German Exam Will Be Given In April

The graduate reading examination in German will be given at 2 p.m., April 24, in room 302, Miller Hall.

DON'T LET THIS HAPPEN TO YOU! — A graphic example of what can happen if you put off ordering your 1950 KENTUCKIAN is illustrated in this scene from the KENTUCKIAN office. Doris Walker, shapely sophomore from Lexington came in this week and even fell to her knees in begging for a '49 KENTUCKIAN. But Editor Charles Patrick, ably assisted by Business Manager Jeanne Wilson and Managing Editor Mary Shinnick, was firm in his refusal to part with the treasured volume. Patrick weakened, but was bolstered by his stronger-willed cohorts.

Order Deadline Announced For 1950 Kyian Yearbook

Feb. 28 is the deadline to order a 1950 Kentuckian, Jeanne Wilson, business manager of the 1950 Kentuckian, announced today. The Kentuckian will be distributed before school is out, and subscriptions can be obtained in the Kentuckian office, next to the Post Office in McVey Hall, for $5.

In previous years, 500 books were ordered in addition to the number of subscriptions sold. This year, due to increased printing and engraving costs, only the books subscribed to before Feb. 28th deadline will be ordered.

Many people were disappointed because they were unable to buy a 1949 Kentuckian. The few that were left at the beginning of the year were tied up by 1949 senior orders. There are a few 1949 books left, which seniors failed to claim. These can be obtained in the Kentuckian office for $5.

Some 1948 Kentuckians were sold for $1, because there was a big surplus, due to a mistake in ordering. The 1949 and 1950 Kentuckians are $5, and there will be no surplus.

Work on the 1950 Kentuckian is nearing completion, Charles Patrick, editor, said. The last pictures will be sent to the engraver this week. The cover has been ordered from the Kingsport Press and will be different from Kentuckian covers of former years.

Two new appointments to the staff have been made. Charles Tyroler has been appointed assistant managing editor and Janet Anderson has been appointed associate editor. The other positions as associate editors are yet to be filled.

Six Awards Offered In Design Contest

A group of early family portraits from private Lexington collections are being exhibited at the art gallery of the Fine Arts Building.

The exhibition, which includes 34 portraits painted in the period from 1815 to 1850, is being held in connection with the Founders' Week program. It was arranged by Miss Anne Callihan, assistant professor of art.

The gallery is open to the public from 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. and from 7:30 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. weekdays and on Sunday afternoons from 2 to 5 o'clock. The current display will continue through Feb. 23.

Old Local Portraits Now On Exhibition

Two contests in architectural designing with six awards totaling $325 have been announced by the Beaux-Arts Institute of Design in cooperation with the Tile Council of America.

The first competition is for the sketch of a side wall for a flower shop. It must be completed in any nine consecutive hours between Feb. 13 and April 17. The second, a design of children's tuberculosis sanitarium, must be completed in any five consecutive weeks between March 20 and May 29. Special attention must be given to the use of real clay tile in both contests.

Further information may be obtained through the College of Engineering.

Kentuckians Honored In Program Schedule For Founders Week

Year's Study In Stuttgart Is Offered

An opportunity for a year of study in Germany on a person-to-person exchange basis is available to a University student with certain qualifications. It has been announced by Mr. Bart N. Peak, director of the YMCA.

Under the plan, the UK student would exchange places with a German boy, Malte Neidhardt, son of a Stuttgart physician, and would live in Dr. Neidhardt's home. The student would attend Stuttgart Institute of Technology, which, in addition to engineering, offers excellent training in physics, chemistry, and mathematics, and good training in geology, geography, biology, history of art, and German literature.

The parents of the UK student must live in or near Lexington, so that Neidhardt may live with them while attending school here. No scholarship is involved, only a home-to-home exchange.

Three awards to students of finance to make the exchange was received in a letter to Pres. H. L. Donovan from Dr. Robert T. Ittner, higher education specialist in Stuttgart, and is not part of any foreign student exchange program.

Students interested in the exchange may obtain further details and information about young Neidhardt from Mr. Peak at the YMCA office.

New Yorker Studies UK Education College

Dr. H. D. Behrens of Geneseo, N. Y., left here yesterday after studying the organization and administration of the College of Education and the building program on the University campus.

Dr. Behrens, chairman of the Department of Education at the State Teacher's College in Geneseo, is making a tour of several universities and colleges. UK was his second stop.

American Collegians Offered Foreign Study Opportunities

More than 100 foreign study fellowships and scholarships for the 1950-51 academic year now are available to American college students. Dr. A. E. Bigge, foreign student adviser, announced this week.

Offered under auspices of the Institute of International Education, the foreign study program includes scholarships to colleges and universities in various countries. Dr. Bigge explained that the IIE awards are in addition to the scholarships made available by the Fulbright program which operates from funds raised through the sale of war surplus materials.

The following awards are open for the school year 1950-51 in the countries indicated:

England: Five scholarships with a value of 200 pounds each are open for the study of labor relations at Ruskin College, Oxford. The only restriction placed upon this area of study is that the applicants "must be active members of a labor union."

France: Thirty-two fellowships with a value of approximately 20,000 francs each, plus a waiver of tuition, and forty-eight assistantships, with a value of 18,000 to 22,000 francs. Here also tuition will be waived for any course the assistant may wish to take. The usual demand of these candidates is that they teach English in French Secondary Schools. Also there are four $1000 cash awards for the study of art, music, and psychiatry.

Germany: A fellowship of $750 for study in the field of Germanics, to be pursued in the Western Zone of Germany, in Switzerland, or in one of the Austrian universities. One $500 cash award for the study of German language and literature.

Italy: This government is expected to renew its six fellowships, each of which has a value of 340,000 lire. A waiver of tuition is usually granted by Italian universities.

The Netherlands: Three fellowships for graduate study are offered, each with a cash stipend of 2000 guilders. Tuition fees are waived.

Switzerland: It is expected that many free tuition scholarships will be offered and that certain schools will add a sum ranging from 1000 to 3000 Swiss francs.

Pan American World Airways system offers 25 travel fellowships which cover only round trip transportation from the United States terminal to the terminal in the Latin American country agreed upon.

Further information may be obtained from Dr. Bigge, room 303-A, Miller Hall.

Building Dedication Is High Point Of 85th Observance

By Kathryn Whitmer

"This is the best program that has been prepared for the University," was the comment of President H. L. Donovan on the program for Founders Week to celebrate the eighty-fifth anniversary of the University and the dedication of the new Fine Arts Building. The program committee was headed by Dr. Herman Spivey, head of the English department.

Founders Day has been observed for six years but this is the first time that such an extensive program has been planned. Centered around the dedication of the new Fine Arts Building, the Founders Week program will feature appearances of several figures prominent in national music, literary and art circles, some of Kentucky's leading authors and artists, and personnel from the UK music and dramatics departments.

Building Is Milestone

"The erection of the Fine Arts Building and its dedication is a new milestone in the accomplishments of the University," President Donovan said. "The educational program of music, art and drama which will be carried on in the building will have a tremendous influence on the people of Kentucky and their aesthetic values," he continued.

All of the programs will be broadcast over WBKY and the local radio stations because of the limited seating capacity of Memorial Hall and the Guignol Theater where the programs will be held.

Music will be the theme of both the opening and closing programs of the week. Two performances of the University Orchestra and Chorus under the direction of Dr. Edwin E. Stein, head of the Music Department, will begin the week's activities. The first concert will be Sunday at 3 p.m. in Memorial Hall and the second will begin at 8 p.m.

Hanson Speaks Tuesday

A concert by the Louisville Philharmonic Orchestra under the direction of Robert Whitney will bring the Founders Week program to a close on Saturday at 3 p.m. in Memorial Hall.

Dr. Howard Hanson, director of the Eastman School of Music at Rochester, N. Y., will discuss "The Place of Music in Our Society" on Tuesday at 8 p.m. in the Guignol Theater.

"The Place of Drama in Our Society" will be discussed by Walter Prichard Eaton, former New York University dramatic critic and professor of drama at Yale University, on Wednesday. "Medea" will be presented Monday by the Guignol Players to demonstrate the dramatic activities that will be carried on in the building. Both programs will begin at 8 p.m. in the Guignol Theater.

Guthrie Moderates

Representing the literary interests found in the new Fine Arts Building, a symposium of Kentucky writers on the art of writing will be held on Friday. A. B. Guthrie Jr. will lead the discussion by Robert H. Hollis Summers which will begin at 8 p.m. in the Guignol Theater. William Sloane, New York publisher, and Robert Warren, a Pulitzer Prize winner, will also be on the program.

Art will be featured in the program Thursday when Philip Rhys Adams, director of the Cincinnati Academy of Fine Arts, will speak on "The Place of Fine Arts in Our Society." The discussion will take place in the Guignol Theater at 8 p.m. A portrait of President Donovan will also be on the program.

This will also be the theme of the Founders Day Convocation when the Fine Arts Building will be formally dedicated. President Donovan will speak on "Accent on the Fine Arts," and Dr. Raymond F. McLain, president of the Transylvania College, will discuss "John Doe, Artist." This program will be held Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock in the Guignol Theater.

Medea Launched In Style Worthy Of New Guignol

By Holton H. Mastin

Joe Pat Knight, an excellent set by Mr. O. G. Brockett, good lighting, and a poised performance by Lucille Little held together Guignol's stage opening production of the Greek tragedy, "Medea."

Towns people and students alike helped make the christening of the new Fine Arts theatre a real event on the University campus. Tuxedos, formal, corsages, and the presence of some of the more prominent faculty members lent an air of excitement to the long awaited event — a classic tragedy completely foreign to most of the Lexington audience. For a while the spirit of the old Roman Theatre and the Stroller was revived. Guignol was making a grand attempt to re-establish herself and pave the way for better drama in a new theatre with more polished performances.

"Medea" got off to a good, well moderated start. As the Nurse, Mary Mulligan's emotionally sustained monologue established an appropriate mood for the play. Michael Graine as the Guardian seemed properly old. C. B. Stephenson wisely restrained his small but rather important role as Creon, ruler of Corinth.

One of the highlights of the play was the defeat of Jason (Joe Pat Knight) in the second act, but this scene also proved to be the defeat of seer-eyed Lucille Little. Cheers to Guignol and her many assistants for attempting something difficult and worthy as "Medea." We all hope this means she is growing in stature and developing better and more mature taste.

Founders Week

Founders Week is to be one of the outstanding events in the history of the University of Kentucky. It will present a well-rounded program worthy of the occasions it is designed to celebrate. Seldom will any of us have an opportunity to witness so impressive a list of events during any one week.

The celebration of the 85th anniversary of the University and of the dedication of the new Fine Arts Building is of definite interest to a great many persons. Practically no room is left for any of the programs which have been planned for the week, only a few tickets to the Sunday performances by the orchestra and chorus remaining after the first rush.

Many who wanted tickets were unable to get them. If more of the programs were to be held in Memorial Hall, larger audiences could be seated. But in that case one of the chief purposes of the week's festivities could not be realized—the audiences would not be introduced to the Guignol theater and other parts of the new Fine Arts Building. Those who wish to, however, will be able to hear most of the programs by radio.

Plastic I. D. Cards

Plastic identification cards now being considered by Dean Kirwan and Athletic Director Shively, which would be good for all University functions, seem to be a good answer to the present difficulties in handling the ticket situation.

Although no card has been approved as yet, if one is accepted it probably will include a picture along with other data concerning the student. In addition to the usual activities, next year's ticket will be good for a series of at least eight community concerts, if present plans are carried out.

Unlike the present ticket books, lost identification cards could be replaced. They should serve as excellent identification for cashing checks and in other business transactions.

(After reading the impressive list of Kentucky authors to be presented in a symposium here next Friday night and taking a cue from other college papers, the Kernel is beginning a series of book reviews, written by students and featuring the works of Kentucky authors, as well as other new books.)

All The King's Men

Robert Penn Warren

By Earl Conn

Kentucky-born Robert Penn Warren has pictured American life as it exists today in his Pulitzer Prize winning novel, "All The King's Men."

The book, the life story of a farmer who becomes governor of his state and possibly its dictator, is supposedly built around the story of Louisiana's Huey Long.

It is fast-moving from the start and interesting to the finish as it takes the reader behind the scene in one of the exciting chapters of our time, the story of the American politician.

Willie Stark is the name of the farmer with ideas of his own of how a state should be run. Jack Burden is the reporter who comes to know Willie and becomes his right-hand man through his administration. It is Jack Burden who tells the story. The author does not seem to criticize nor applaud Willie Stark. Rather he tells of his rise to power and points at the things along the way which make Willie become a hard ruler of his state.

Interwoven into the Stark story is the battle of Jack Burden to find himself and his place in life. It is not a pretty picture of the American scene which Warren paints but it is indeed an interesting one.

Three women figure prominently in the story. Willie's wife soon loses her husband as he starts his rise to power. Willie's right-hand woman who shows him the way to the top, Sadie Burke, is too much a part of the Stark machine to figure in his life. Jack Burden's girl of old, Ann Stanton, however, yields to Willie and becomes his mistress.

A series of events leads to Willie's assassination and at the conclusion of the book, Jack and Ann are left to make what they can of their already shattered lives.

The description of the tremendous power which Willie weaves over public opinion is a revelation in itself.

The book has now been made into a movie and all who see the picture will find the book equally as gripping and as interesting.

LETTERS to the Editor

Disgusting

Editor, The Kernel:

I would like to call to your attention the lack of respect and care that the University students afford the facilities offered them.

The new Fine Arts Building, the pride and joy of the campus, has already fallen prey to careless students. The lounges are a shining example—knee-deep in paper towels, the basins used for trash cans, and cigarette burns in the new leather couches.

The Art Department walls, floors, and furniture are spattered with paint, where thoughtless students cleaned their brushes by squeezing them on the floor, or waving them in the air. The Music Department pianos have cigarette burns on the finish, and gum covering many a square inch under the piano seats.

Students have already carved names, insinuas and Greek letters on many of the desks, and penciled them on the walls. In a few years, the paint will chip and peel, the mortar will crack from the bricks, and the new Fine Arts Building will become just another "old classroom building."

Are we going to let the Fine Arts Building become, in a few years, another White Hall—too old and decrepit to repair, but necessary for classes? It's up to the students.

A Disgusted Student

The winner of the cartoon of Chesterfield cigarettes for the most interesting "Letter to the Editor" run last week was the one signed "Student".

If the person who wrote this letter will stop by the Kernel sports office (McVey Hall), Tom Diskin, one of the campus representatives for Chesterfields, will present the cigarettes to him.

All winning letters must be signed. If the author does not want his or her name to be used please state this and the request will be complied with. Fictitious names will not be considered in the contest. At least two letters must be run weekly in the Kernel to be considered.

Y Secretary Visits

Miss Rosalie Oakes, regional secretary of the YWCA, will make her annual visit to the campus next week and will be in the YW office.

Miss Oakes was executive secretary of the YWCA at the University from 1942 through 1944.

Vague Magazine Is Accepting Manuscripts

Manuscripts are still being accepted for publication in Vague, campus literary magazine. Dr. Jane Haselden, assistant dean of women and faculty advisor of the magazine, has announced.

Essays, plays, poems, stories, or other articles should be submitted by March 1 to Dean Haselden's office, Helen Diers at the Tri-Delt house, or Virginia Henry, P. O. box 5944.

Vague is edited by Chi Delta Phi, women's literary honorary, and advertising is solicited by members of Theta Sigma Phi, women's professional journalism society.

Ag Instructors Speak To Training School

Two instructors in the College of Agriculture and Home Economics, J. B. Kelley and Dean Hamilton, were speakers at a Training School held this week on the campus and sponsored by the Rural Electrification Association.

Kelley spoke on the problems involved in a home water system and Hamilton spoke on problems of a water supply.

Dr. Linwood Brown of the Experiment Station spoke on the sources of water and their protection.

Three UK freshmen, Tony Cocanougher, Elsie Marie Issacs, and Pearl Hill, have received awards totaling $230 from a contest sponsored by the Courier-Journal.

Cocanougher received $100 for the work he has done with the 4-H Club in cattle raising. In the last nine years of club work Cocanougher has earned a total of $25,452 raising livestock which have won championship prizes.

Elsie Marie Issacs also won $100 for work as a 4-H member. Pearl Hill received $30 for the same type of work. Both were in the field of home economics.

The Hitching Post

By Betty Bogges

"Well, J. C. (Joe College), little cupid has come and gone. In his haste to get away we have boxes of candy and flowers and much pinning. Or then maybe the boys were getting eager to hang those pledge pins and for practice they pinned a few girls."

"Now, just a minute! Why all week end the Hearts reigned and with this for a background what else, but that the golden arrow should hit quite a few couples. Personally, Ky. Kitty, the Valentine dances with all those good looking girls surrounded by valentines started even me thinking about pinning."

"Not you sentimental about hearts, ice, and flowers, J. C. - I don't believe it. I thought boys considered us way off beat."

"Well, Ky. Kitty, if you don't believe we are still in favor of the ears, candy, and flowers gaze be-

Pretty Socks To Pay At SUKY Twirp Hop

The Twirp (The Woman Is Requested to Pay) Sock Hop, sponsored by SUKY will be held Friday, February 24 at 8:30 p.m. in the SUB Blue Grass ballroom.

"The dance is being sponsored to raise money for the SUKY card section next year."

Contests for the prettiest pair of socks and the most agile jitterbug will highlight the evening. Prizes will be given.

Tommy Radden, in charge of arrangements, has announced that Smoke Richardson and his orchestra will play.

Tickets will be sold by the members of SUKY next week. The admission is $93 stag or drag.

Dairy Meeting Held

A two-day field meet, sponsored by the College of Agriculture and Home Economics and the Kentucky Dairy Industry Committee, ended Wednesday with an approximate attendance of over 100 cream and milk experts from various parts of the state.

The program was concerned with advances which have been made in the dairy industry. Two of the principal speakers were E. E. Haskell, vice-president of Beatrice Foods Company, Chicago, and Dr. K. L. Milstead, who is in charge of the Kentucky, Ohio, Indiana, and Tennessee branch of the Federal Food and Drug Administration.

FTA Club Will Hear Dean Of Ed College

Dr. Frank Dickey, dean of the College of Education, will be the guest speaker at the regular meeting of the Future Teachers of America Club Monday night at 7 p.m. in the recreation room of the Education Building.

Dr. Dickey will speak on "Educational Opportunities in Kentucky."

Theta Sig Pledges

The name of Nancy Gaskin, journalism junior, was omitted from the list of pledges to Theta Sigma Phi, women's professional journalism society, published last week.

SUB's Eat Wienes

The Outing Club, SUB service committee, has planned a hike and wiener roast for Saturday. The group will leave the SUB at 12:15. All students interested must sign up in room 122, SUB, by noon today. Fee is 50 cents.

Music Room Is Open

The SUB music room will be open Monday through Friday from 12-3:30 p.m.

Mrs. Barbara Howarth is the librarian.

Tax Help Offered

WBKY Plans To Broadcast Founders' Day Programs

By T. J. Clark

In observance of Founders' Day, the Fine Arts Symposium starts the day after tomorrow. That means a week of high velocity stuff, and the mechanisms of the special feature machine at the University Radio Service are being geared for a large load of special programs. So I sat myself down beside a telephone, and after alternately getting the right and wrong numbers, came up with the following particulars.

Sunday afternoon, over WKLY, the University Chorus and Orchestra will be broadcast at 3 o'clock from Memorial Hall.

Tuesday, over WBKY and WLEX, Music Director Howard Hanson of the Eastman School of Music, University of Rochester, will hold forth on the topic, "The Place of Music in Our Society," from the Guignol Theatre, 8:05 p.m.

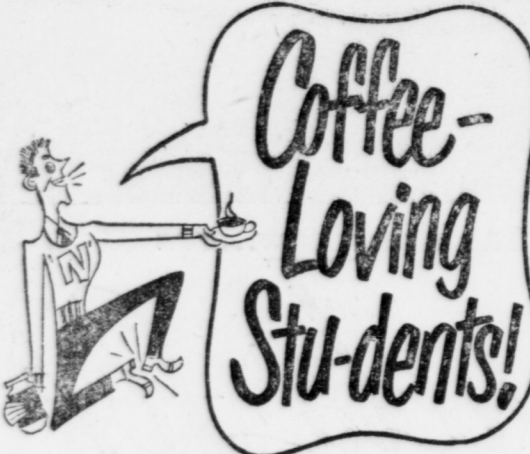

Wednesday the Founders' Day activities will be carried by WLEX at 10 a.m., and by WKLY at 2 p.m. Wednesday evening dramatist and drama critic Walter P. Eaton, Yale's professor emeritus in playwriting and now visiting lecturer at the University of North Carolina, will show "The Place of Drama in Our Society." Broadcast time, 8 p.m., WBKY and WLEX.

Thursday, over the facilities of WBKY and WLEX, Phillip R. Adams, director of the Cincinnati Art Museum, will discuss "The Place of Art in Our Society," 8:05 p.m. On Friday, same time and stations, you will be able to hear the symposium on writing by Kentucky authors.

Saturday afternoon the Louisville Philharmonic Orchestra will perform in Memorial Hall. WKLY will broadcast the program at 3 o'clock. For all you little kiddies WBKY has finally decided to start a story program. Zell Sharff's "Story Time"

HAVE YOU TRIED THIS EASIER, BETTER WAY TO ROASTER-FRESH COFFEE?

Next time you know you're going to have to stay up late studying, pick up a jar of Nescafé.

Nothing helps you through long sessions like coffee. And no coffee is easier to make than Nescafé. It's instant. Simply put one teaspoonful of Nescafé in a cup, add hot water (preferably boiling), stir.

Good? It's delicious! Nescafé just naturally makes a better cup of coffee.

because it always keeps its roaster-fresh flavor until you release it in the cup.

Yes, Nescafé gives you all the flavor and "lift" of pure, freshly roasted, freshly brewed coffee, without the fuss and muss of brewing.

Nescafé is the instant way to pure coffee enjoyment. If you like good coffee—you'll love Nescafé. Keep it on hand for all occasions.

More people drink Nescafé than all other instant coffees!

*Nescafé (pronounced NES-CAFAY) is the exclusive registered trade-mark of The Nestlé Company, Inc. to designate its soluble coffee product which is composed of equal parts of pure soluble coffee and added pure carbohydrates (dextrose, maltose and dextrin) added solely to protect the flavor.

Kentucky Basketeers: Bobby Watson

Likeable and reliable. Those words just about summarize how most Kentucky fans feel about Bobby Watson, the sophomore guard from Owensboro, who has helped so much this season in aiding the Kentucky Wildcats to fashion their brilliant record.

Certainly here is one of the best liked Kentucky players on the team today. He is liked and admired not only by Kentucky students, but also by the members of his own team. The members of last year's freshman team proved how they felt about Bobby when they named him captain of the undefeated Kittens.

And about his reliability. Bobby has shown this quality time and time again this season. The most recent occurrence was Monday night when the Cats had to battle almost to the wire to stop Alabama.

Early in the game when the Crimson Tide was throwing them in from all corners of the court and things were getting plenty rough, Bobby potted a couple of long shots which kept the Cats knocking on the door.

Kentucky students also remember how Bobby hit for 20 points against a tough Arkansas team to help turn the tide in that game. Other high notes for the Owensboro lad this season were the 17 points he connected with against DePaul in the Cats' excellent showing at Chicago and the 15 he hit against Georgia in a losing cause down at Athens last month.

Bobby's record through the Alabama game of Monday reads a total of 166 points amassed on 60 field goals and 46 free throws in the 22 games Kentucky has played.

Another point about Bobby's floor play is the fact that he has only been guilty of 33 personal fouls in contests to date which is by far the lowest of any Kentucky regular.

Bobby is one of the fastest men on the Kentucky team today. He breaks down the floor at the head of the Wildcat fast break at tremendous speed and also breaks through for the basket at a lightning-like pace.

Good on Set Shots

Perhaps Bobby's best shot is that long one which he unloads from about 25 to 30 feet. He can hit them from just about anywhere in the back court and when he once starts to connect, that's all. It was this shot that kept Kentucky in the Alabama game in the early stages.

Playing on last year's undefeated freshman quintet, Bobby displayed a brilliant floor game which stamped him with future greatness in addition to scoring 115 points to be second highest scorer. His shooting percentage from the field was 37.5 which would place him on anybody's team.

Born in Central City

Bobby was born March 23, 1930 in Central City, Ky., and so is only about one month away from his

Watson Hits 17 Points

Bobby Watson added 17 points to his total and displayed another fine floor game against Ole' Miss Wednesday night as the Cats won 90-50. Bobby sank five fielders in a row late in the first half and added seven free throws in nine attempts to boost his point total to 183 for the year.

twentieth birthday. He calls Owensboro home, however, and it was there that he gained his high school reputation. He was named an All-State player in his senior year. He also played center in football for Owensboro Senior High.

Standing five feet, ten inches Bobby is rather short as basketball players of today go, but the opposition has found plenty of dynamite packed in that explosive 175 pound frame.

Bobby still has two years to go as a member of the University of Kentucky varsity and all of Kentucky is sure that this likeable and reliable boy will be one of the Wildcats' biggest assets.—By Earl L. Conn.

BOBBY WATSON, the Cats' starting sophomore guard, is shown above protecting the ball from Tennessee's scrappy Forward Don Graham in the scrap here last Saturday. Watson, a 5-10 lad from Owensboro, is the only UK cager under the six-foot mark but has been very valuable this season. Incidentally, Kentucky clipped the Vols, 79-52, with Watson scoring 14 of the points.

Big Bill Leads SEC Scorers

When it comes to scoring, Bill Spivey is head, shoulders, and chest above them all. He's way out in front of Southeastern scorers with 419 points, an average of 18.2 per game. He has connected on 34.3 percent of his shots taken from the field and has hit 73 percent of his free throws.

Jim Line, still hitting the basket at a 41 percent clip, is third among SEC scorers with 222 points, an average of 12.1 per game. He is hitting about like Spivey now, 73 percent for free throws.

Walt Hirsch is third high for the Wildcats with 229 points. He is way out in front in assists, having contributed directly to teammate scores with many quick passes. Little Bobby Watson has racked up 183 points, hitting mostly from far out on the court on 31 percent of his shots.

Capt. Barnstable hampered by an injured leg part of the season, snapped out of his scoring slump Wednesday night, connecting on all four of his shots to boost his total to 131 points, hitting a fourth of his shots.

Lucian Whitaker has hit an even 30 percent of his shots in scoring 102 points. Shelby Linville has tallied only 56 points but has averaged 6.9 points a game. He has been a big man under the backboards since joining the Cat lineup this semester, connecting on 35 percent of his shots.

Guy Strong has probably one of the best averages in the country; he swishes the nets every other time he shoots, scoring 54 points during the limited time he has played.

Kittens Gain Revenge In Win Over Wesleyan; Top Pikeville

By Bob Gorham

Kentucky's Kittens avenged their only loss this season by shellacking Kentucky Wesleyan's Baby Panthers, 32-60, in Alumni gym Monday night. Wesleyan won the first contest, 58-55.

The frosh were paced by the spectacular ball handling of Cliff Hagan and the accurate shooting of Frank Ramsey. They were not to be denied as they started off on top and stayed there all the way.

Ramsey, usually a forward, started the game at guard in place of the injured Lindle Castle, and poured in 28 points to top the Cat scorers. Hagan added 22, and Ches Riddle, playing his best game since donning the Blue and White, contributed 15 markers and a brilliant floor game.

The Panthers had their stars, too, in playmaker Bill Harrell, who led his team in scoring with 19 points. Other outstanding men for the Purples were H. Daniels, a 6'5" long-shot artist who sank six of his specialties for 12 points, and Bill Williams, a diminutive guard, who tabbed 11.

The line-up:

Kentucky (83)	(60) Ky. Wesleyan
Price (6)	F (4) Curtis
Tsiorp's (4)	F (6) Rogers
Hagan (22)	C (4) Shearer
Pikrone (8)	G (19) Harrell
Ramsey (28)	G (11) Williams

Subs: Ky. Riddle (15), Baltzell, Frye, Ky. Wesleyan: H. Daniels (12), Blake (2), Westerfield, D. Daniel, Keny (2).

Beat Pikeville, 92-42
Last Saturday night the Freshmen romped to their seventh win of the season by walloping Pikeville Junior College, 92-42.

Leading the scorers was Cliff Hagan with 26 points, his largest point production since joining the squad in January. By Tuesday of this week, he had scored 88 points in five games for a 17.6 per game average.

Next in line was Dwight Price with 17 markers. Price has seen most of his service as a reserve, but has shown unusual scoring ability in chalking up 90 points in nine games or a 10-point average.

The Kittens were particularly sharp on offense in the first half

Pikrone (9) G (6) Booth
Subs: Ky. Price (17), Frye (1), Waggoner (3), Riddle (8), Baltzell (5), Pikeville: Conley, Singleton (1), Snyder, Blankenship (3), Kirk, Harmon (1).

Cats Increase Home Win Streak To 81 With Three SEC Triumphs

The Big Blue added three more victories to their long home winning streak the past week and have now captured 81 consecutive contests in the 27-year-old Alumni Gym.

By beating Tech tomorrow night, Xavier next Thursday and Vanderbilt next Saturday here on the local court, the Cats will move out of Alumni Gym into the new Coliseum having won 84 straight games—very probably an all-time collegiate record.

The Wildcats tie into Tech Saturday with a Conference record of 9-2.

UK 90, Ole' Miss 50

Kentucky notched its ninth SEC win Wednesday night when the Cats took Ole' Miss into camp, 90-50, at Alumni Gym. Despite the 40-point win, the Cats didn't look too impressive in gaining the victory.

The game was one of those wild affairs with both teams throwing the ball away on numerous occasions. However, there were a couple of bright spots in the Kentucky picture—Bobby Watson and Jim Line paced the attack with 17 apiece while reserves Guy Strong and Read Morgan looked good. Capt. Dale Barnstable scored four baskets in 10 minutes in the last half, hitting on all four of his shots.

Bill Spivey couldn't get going in the first half but scored 12 points in the final semester.

UK led 23-8 with 10 minutes gone in the first half and went into the dressing room holding a 38-18 lead at the halftime.

UK hit 33 field goals and added 14 out of 20 free throws. Mississippi connected on only 20 shots from the field and got only 10 out of 25 from the charity stripe.

Kentucky 79, Vols 52

Kentucky won the game students wanted most of all last Saturday night when they overran the University of Tennessee, 79-52, at Alumni Gym. It was the Cats' 79th straight win at home.

Tennessee had stopped Kentucky at Knoxville 65-53 earlier in the season for the Cats' first SEC defeat since 1945 and everyone wanted revenge. It had also been Tennessee which defeated the Cats in '45 at Knoxville.

Big Bill Spivey paved the way in the game with a total of 34 points

—only four away from the record set last year by Alex Groza. The famed hook shot by Spivey was working to perfection as he tossed in 14 field goals and added six out of six free throw attempts.

The Volunteers fought hard however and were only trailing 29-24 with 15 minutes gone. But then Kentucky caught fire—as they are so apt to do—and were leading 39-29 at halftime.

A big disappointment for Tennessee was Hugh Jones, the guard from Harlan, who collected four personal fouls before the half and never did break the scoring column.

Ed Montgomery was a sensation afloat for the Vols. He played a brilliant floor game in addition to tossing in 14 points. Don Graham also hit for 14 and gave Kentucky a lot of trouble in the first half.

Bobby Watson tallied 14 points for the Cats while Jim Line scored 11 and Walt Hirsch added 10. Kentucky hit 30 out of 90 from the floor for a 33.3 percentage while the Vols collected on only 21 out of 79 for a 26.5 percentage.

UK 77, Alabama 57
Walt Hirsch shot the Wildcats ahead, 53-52, with a pair of field goals and Jim Line iced the game with a couple more as Kentucky pulled away in the late stages to whip a scrappy Alabama team, 77-57, last Monday for their 80th straight win in Alumni gym.

The Cats trailed throughout the first half, at one time by six points, and not until Whitey Pearson was sent in with two minutes to go did they begin to wake up. The speedy sophomore guard dunked in three points and contributed directly to six more: Bill Spivey scored on a quick pass from Pearson just as the half ended to put Kentucky ahead, 32-31.

Spivey, high point man with 29, was undoubtedly the most outstanding man on the floor. He put Kentucky ahead six times in the second half and did most of Kentucky's rebounding.

Hirsch's floor play was one of his best of the year. He scored 13 points and must have had 25 assists. His timely passes have been one of the main factors along with Spivey's height, which has made this year's team one of national importance.

SHORT SHOTS—Kentucky set a record of 104 field goal attempts. Spivey's 29 showed him well up on the SEC point parade, almost 150 points above his closest rival... and Shelby Linville did his usual fine job on the back boards.

Frosh Trounce Bennett, 71-37

The freshmen Kittens clawed their way to win No. 10 Wednesday night in Alumni gym. The victim was Sue Bennett Junior College, and the score was 71-37.

The Cats ran up a 20-0 lead in the first nine and one-half minutes before allowing Dixon to count Sue Bennett's first points on a one-handed shot from the head of the circle. They went on to post a 35-12 half-time lead, and continued to increase

Kittens Meet Vandy Next

The Kittens, winners of four games in five days during the past week, make their twelfth start of the season when they meet the Vanderbilt freshmen at Owensboro tomorrow night.

the margin in the second period. The score at the two-minute mark was 68-37.

High scorers for the Cats were Lindie Castle and Dick Pikrone with 15 each. Frank Ramsey added 14.

Best for the Sue Bennett cagers was Bert Cox, a member of last year's Kentucky freshman team. He had 10 points before fouling out in the final minutes.

Intramural Sports

By Bob Gorham and Lewis Donohew

Fifty-four teams representing 19 fraternities and 35 independent organizations, have entered the intramural basketball elimination round-robin, according to Director Bill McCubbin.

The teams have been divided into two groups—fraternities and independents—and these groups subdivided into divisions. There are three divisions in the fraternity bracket and five in the independent bracket.

The three teams with the best won-lost record in each division or a total of 24 teams, will be eligible for the tournament to be held at the end of the round-robin.

Independents
Teams entering the independent division include last year's champs, Breckinridge Hall; the runner-up team, K-Club; Kinkad Hall, Basketeers, Clifton Cats, Hometowners, World Walkers, Yankees, Northern Kentucky Turtles, UK Vets, Dairy Club, B.S.U. Colts, Misfits, Newman Club, Bulldogs, Podunk and Electrical Engineers.

Minutemen, Newmarites, Married Men's K-Club, Squirts, Ingleside, Colonels, Breathitt Owls, Law School, A.S.M.E., Naismithmen, Demon Terrors, Scholars, Novac Manor, Varmints, Ballhawks, Tigers, Darkhorses, and the Tavern.

Hagan's 38 Sets Frosh Net Mark

By Bob Gorham

With big Cliff Hagan pouring in 38 points, the Kittens won their ninth game of the season by defeating Campbellsville Junior College, 77-63, Tuesday night.

Hagan ripped the nets for 16 field goals and six out of eight free throw attempts to set a record for a freshman player. Coaches Adolph Rupp and Harry Lancaster said that "as far as is known, no other freshman has ever topped this mark."

Campbellsville jumped into an early lead and gave the frosh a real fight all the way. The count was tied at 15-15, 17-17 and 19-19 before the Cats took a 21-20 lead and stayed on top the rest of the way. The halftime score was 41-27.

The teams battled on even terms in the second half, each team collecting 38 points, but the Tigers were too far in arrears to press the Blue and White.

The Kittens hit for 33.6 percent from the field and caged 11 of 23 free tosses. Campbellsville had a 29.1 average, and converted 17 of 25 from the fifteen-foot mark.

Frosh Fencers Drop Opener 7-5

The first freshman fencing team in the history of the University lost its opening match to Tri-Cities Amateur Fencers seven bouts to five bouts. Tri-Cities, made up of fencers from University of Louisville, Louisville YMCA, and Jeffersonville, Ind., had a tremendous advantage in experience over the frosh swordsmen.

For the freshman Bill Seiler, acting captain, won three and lost one; Paul Wright won one and lost two; Ted Dunn won one and lost two.
